Karen Brett and her daughter, Sarah Brett, declared Garveys SuperValu Best Dressed Mother & Daughter Duo at the Tralee Festival Races on Saturday 25th of August

Judged by TV Star, Lorraine Keane, Paula Lenihan, Editor of RSVP Magazine and HR & Operations Director, Garvey Group, Caroline McEnergy.

Karen Brett (Blennerville, Tralee) and her gorgeous daughter, Sarah (18 months) were declared the Garvey's SuperValu Best Dressed Mother and Daughter on the last day of Tralee Festival Races on Saturday 25th of August. First prize was a full day's pampering for two in the luxurious Peninsula Spa in the Dingle Skellig Hotel and two superb Garveys SuperValu Hampers. First runners up were Tina Wall and her daughter Kathleen Wall Sheehy, also both from Tralee. They received a specially created Mothers & Daughters' hamper from the Garvey's SuperValu range. The competition was judged by TV Star, Lorraine Keane, assisted by Garvey's HR & Operational Director, Caroline McEnergy and Paula Lenihan from RSVP Magazine.

Karen Brett wore a stylish Gold Dress with matching Cream and Gold Coat, purchased in Weardrobe Boutique, Tralee. Her daughter Sarah, dressed in a bright orange and cream dress with matching hat, complemented her mom's outfit beautifully.

The judges and sponsors enjoyed a pre racing luncheon in the newly opened Cooperage restaurant in Benners Hotel, Tralee. Top chef, Martin McCormack, personally prepared the luncheon, which included, scollops, salmon, and Kerry Lamb and a divine selection of mouth watering desserts.

The judges were overwhelmed at the numbers of Best Dressed Duos at the Tralee Races. They choose 12 finalists and could have selected many more. Final judging took place in the Garvey's SuperValu marquee and the winners were presented their prize in the winner's enclosure after the 5th race.

After the races, the judges and sponsors went out for dinner and on the VIP room of Fabric nite club until the small hours.
